Part of The Big God Story

Jonah 1-4

God asked Jonah to go to Ninevah and deliver a special message. Instead, Jonah ran from God. He boarded a boat, but God sent a violent storm. Eventually, Jonah was thrown overboard and swallowed by a great fish. After three days in the belly of the fish, God rescued Jonah and he went to Ninevah to deliver the message.

Did You Know?

- Ninevah, where God sent Jonah, was the capital of Assyria and one of Israel's greatest enemies.
• After Jonah was spit out of the fish, God asked him to go to Ninevah again. This time, Jonah did what God asked.

Hamilton says, "Dig into God's Word"

Read Jonah 1:17-2:10. After reading, remind your child that it was God who saved Jonah from the belly of the fish.

Tot Talk

What did Jonah do when he was inside the big fish? That's right, he prayed to God.

Your child may enjoy playing peek-a-boo. As you play and ask, "Where's baby?" remind your child that there's nowhere she can hide from God because He is always with her.

Tot Talk

How many days did Jonah spend inside the fish? Three days! Who saved Jonah? God saved him!
