I. What is Luke about?

II. The Orientation of the Friends

- a. What can we learn from the men who carried the paralyzed man?
They were first _____.
They then had a _____ for the paralyzed man.

III. The Carrying

- a. Helping people get to Jesus (carrying the paralyzed man) requires
_____.
- b. Helping people get to Jesus sometimes requires
_____.

IV. The House

- a. It is only by _____ that we can do all of this.
- b. Because we are made in _____,
and He is _____, we are also to be _____.

V. The Hardened Hearts

- a. The appropriate response to Jesus' work is
_____, but
_____ and
_____.

VI. Reflection Questions

- a. Is your heart being stretched as you allow the Spirit to guide your eyes to the needy among you? Or has it hardened? What do you need from Jesus so that you can respond faithfully to Him?
- b. What is the Good News that you need? That your friends and community need? How can you be the friend who carries others to Jesus?
